At the May 2020 LAFCo meeting, Commissioner Mendes asked staff to look into an issue brought to his attention by the Fresno County Fire Protection District regarding the lack of a property tax sharing agreement with the City of Parlier.

Staff reviewed the record and prepared a letter to the District and the City in response to Commissioner Mendes' direction.

This Tuesday, the Executive Officer and Fire District Chief has spoken about the letter and what avenues may exist to address the District's concerns.

Staff will brief the Commission on the matter, its letter, and receive any direction that the Commission provides.
